

Expressive Arts and Design
 Design Technology is taught through the area of Expressive Arts and Design and encourages children to develop their own making skills in a range of contexts using a range of materials to encourage them to explore, design and make.

EYFS

Year One

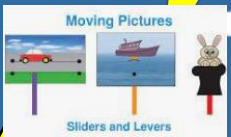

Food
Preparing fruit and vegetables.

Practitioner – Heston Blumenthal

Textiles

Mechanisms
Sliders and levers

Year Two

Textiles
Sewing to join

Practitioner – Henry Ford

Practitioner – William Morris

Free Standing Structures

Year Three

Practitioner – Architecture of Chester

Textiles
2D and 3D Products

Year Four

Practitioner – Gustave Eiffel

Mechanisms
Pneumatics

Food
Healthy and varied diet

Practitioner – Vivienne Westwood

Practitioner James Dyson

Shell Structures

Electrical
Simple programming and control

Mechanisms
Levers

Year Five

Electrical Systems
Monitoring and control

Practitioner – Thomas Telford

Mechanisms
CAMS

Practitioner – Tinker Hatfield (Trainer)

Year Six

Food
Culture and seasonality

Computer aided structures

Practitioner – Harry Beck

Practitioner – Coco Chanel

